To Respondent Debra Bowen, Secretary of State, together with your employees, agents, and successors-in-interest:

WHEREAS on May 7, 2014, this Court issued an order granting the petition for writ of mandate and has now issued the judgment in this matter;

YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED TO DO THE FOLLOWING:

- 1) withdraw CC-ROV Memorandum No. 11304, issued December 5, 2011 ("Memorandum") by notifying any individual or entity to whom you have disseminated the

1 Memorandum that it has been withdrawn and is no longer in effect, and by removing any public
2 postings of the Memorandum;

3 2) refrain from producing or disseminating any voting materials that indicate that
4 individuals on Post-Release Community Supervision (PRCS) and mandatory supervision are

8 3) notify every county's elections officials that any voting materials that you have

11 should not be utilized in any manner.

12 4) to the extent you produce or disseminate any new voting materials that discuss the voting
13 eligibility of persons on parole, those materials must indicate that otherwise-eligible persons on
14 Mandatory Supervision and Post Release Community Supervision have the same right to register
15 to vote and to vote as all other otherwise eligible persons.

16 Nothing in this writ prevents the Secretary of State's Office from issuing a new CC-ROV or
17 new memorandum related solely to the topic of persons serving felony sentences in county jail
18 under Penal Code § 1170(h).

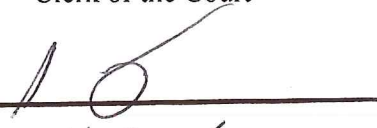

19 This writ will not go into effect for 15 days to allow Respondent to file a notice of appeal.
20 Respondent will file a return within 45 days after this writ goes into effect, stating with specificity
21 the actions you have taken to comply with this writ.
